By Car

Sizewell is located east of Ipswich.

From the North

Turn off the A12 at Yoxford onto the B1122. Drive through Theberton, and shortly after passing Leiston Abbey, follow a signposted left turn to the power station. Two-and-a-half miles further down this road, take the left fork at the Vulcan Arms for the private road to the stations.

From the South

After passing Farnham on the A12, turn right onto the A1904 signposted Aldeburgh, drive through Snape, then turn left on the B1069 to Leiston. On entering Leiston, follow the signposted route to Sizewell power station, which follows the B1122 to Yoxford, for about a mile. At this point, take the signposted right turn. Two-and-a-half miles further down this road, take the left fork at the Vulcan Arms for the private road to the stations.
